Restoring the Women Who Can Change Our World

DALISIA COPPERSMITH, MS, MDIV, CCP

Dalisia Coppersmith is an internationally experienced speaker, executive coach, and founder of Revive Learning & Wellness. Her personal mission is to restore the women who can change our world. She specializes in dissolving unconscious resistance to women's leadership and elevating those who build inclusive organizations and vibrant communities. Dalisia brings over 25 years as an executive coach and leader in corporate, military and government organizations. Her talks are guaranteed to move your audience from misunderstanding and quiet judgment of strong women to a place of deep appreciation for their contributions and leadership.

The Heroine's Journey Signature Series

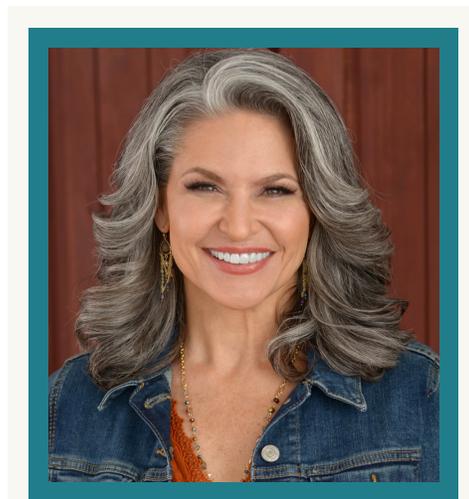

This signature series of talks is perfect for all diverse audiences, corporate teams, conferences, and women's groups. Discover the origins of resistance to female leadership, what organizations can do to overcome it, and what assertive women can do to return to their best selves and make the impact they were created to make.

The Science of Self-Defeat

Discover how stereotypes and identity threats can inhibit a person's performance whether or not anyone is actually treating them differently. Learn how we defeat ourselves, how to overcome it, and how others can help. Rediscover your voice and shed the dark cloud of "otherness." This can be delivered as a keynote or workshop.

Custom Keynotes, TEDx, & Diversity Events

Dalisia will prepare a custom keynote talk or workshop for theme-based events that align with her mission of helping strong women rise. She also appreciates participating in panel discussions, podcasts interviews, and group mentoring. Get in touch today to exchange ideas about your event!
